ASSOCIATION OF SURGEONS OF INDIA

ASSAM CHAPTER

SURGERY PAPYRUS

From the desk of the Chairman

Esteemed members

Warm regards to you all. I offer my heartiest thanks to you all for allowing me to serve the association as it's Chairman for the year 2020.

With a great hope and expectation we took over charge on 2nd February 2020. On 1st April 2020 Myself and Dr. Gunabhi Ram Das (Secretary Assam Chapter) attended ASI Sectional and Chapter meeting in Chennai. We planned to work with a great zeal and accordingly we prepared an academic calendar for the year 2020. We planned for holding CME in different places of Assam and Midterm conference on May last part in Bongaigaon. Annual conference was supposed to be conducted in Jorhat. But due to COVID-19 pandemic situation, Government declared lockdown and prohibited all meetings, conferences and other social activities until further order. So we have no way out but to postpone all our activities .

But when one door closed another door may have opened .Our enthusiastic and very active members found out that door i.e “ Internet” . ASI central as well as Chapters started their activities using the internet - webinar. Assam Chapter was also not left behind. The scientific committee Assam Chapter held a webinar on 4th June 2020. Thanks to Dr. Jishan Ahmed, immediate past Chairman, Dr. R.C Brahma, Chairman Scientific Committee, Dr. D.K Sarma, Dr. N.N. Ganguli , Dr. SS Bhattacharya and Dr. Gunabhi Ram Das, Secretary Assam Chapter .The Principal AMCH Dibrugarh needs special mention for his help.

After taking charge we requested for reimbursement of the expenditure we incurred in preparation for ASICON 20 Guwahati . ASI Hq agreed with our demand and reimbursed our total bill of Rs. 71,061.00 .

ASI Hq sent us 105 PPE Kits to be used by surgeons working in COVID Hospitals in Assam . Association of Surgeon of Rural India which is the rural section of ASI has also donated Rs. 25000.00 towards Assam Chapter for PPE Kit through ASI Hq . The ASI Hq informed us that this amount was included in the 105 PPE Kit supplied to Assam (which included the courier cost). We distributed the PPE Kits to GMCH Guwahati, MMCH Guwahati, AMCH Dibrugarh and Silchar Medical College. ASI Hq also sent 900 bottles of hand sanitizers to Assam Chapter to distribute to the COVID Hospitals of Assam. We distributed it to the all Hospitals mentioned above plus Sonapur District Hospital. Thanks to Dr. M.K. Choudhury EC Member and his team for their active part in distribution of above materials.

ASI Assam Chapter donated Rs.1,00,0000 to Assam Arogya Nidhi. This fund was raised by donation from our own members. Thanks to all members who had donated generously towards the fund .

During last six months many of our members are shining in national level . To name a few, Dr. Ravi Kannan of Silchar has been honoured with the Padmashri Award from Government of India. Prof. Subhash Khanna has been awarded the Honorary FRCS, Edinburg, and many others shine in their individual capacity. I congratulate all of them.

RRC for NE Zone is to be held on 10th to 15th August online. I hope all our resident and PG students will join and take benefit of it.

On behalf of the executive committee Assam Chapter ASI (ASA) 2020 I seek your cooperation, suggestions and help so that we can serve the association to the utmost satisfaction and expectations. I am indebted to the members who helped me to prepare this newsletter.

Long Live ASA , Long Live ASI

Dr Sarbeswar Bora

Chairman,

Assam State Chapter of ASI.

ASI SSS request each members to motivate and contribute 5(Five) members each. This will take us to 5000 mark. Without helping each one of us will loose the opportunity to help our families.

Please take responsibility each of us and motivate to grow our scheme much higher then we will be winner at last. We hope it won't be much difficult. Although we have reached 900 plus, so we are almost running up to cross 1000 marks if the growth 200 plus per year. It will more useful for all of us families kindly help SSS. We felicitated members who hel SSS membership during every ASICON.

Long Live ASI

FROM THE DESK OF THE SECRETARY

Dear Esteemed
Members,

Greetings to you and your family.

At the very outset, I thank you all for giving me
this opportunity to serve the association as Hony.
Secretary for the second term.

This year, we had come up with a great Academic and Social Calender, but due to the restrictions imposed and the present situation of spread of Covid 19 disease, we could not go forward physically with the planned activities, cancelling the Mid Term C.M.E at Bongaigaon.

However, we conducted an online webinar, first of it's kind by ASA on 04.06.2020 , which was well attended by more than 140 members and postgraduates.

Our Editor, JASA with his editorial team needs to be specially appreciated for able to bring out another Volume (No. 27) Issue no.1 of JASA, which is available on our website www.asiassam.org.

To fight this covid pandemic, many of our members are playing very active role, leading from the frontline.
I congratulate all of them, and pray for their well being and good health of their families. For their protection, ASI headquarters sent us 105 PPEs and 900 Hand sanitizers which have been distributed to the designated Covid Hospitals. I thank the ASI for the same.

This year, our Annual conference ASACON 2020, which was to be held at Jorhat, will have to be organized on an online platform, as communicated by ASI headquarters. We are trying to sort out things and seek your suport and suggestions to make it a huge success.
In the meanwhile, we will be comming up with some other online academic activities for our members and postgraduate students, and we will notify you from time to time.

I request our members to attend the NSEP (National Online Skill enhancement Programme) organisd by ASI which is being held every Wednesday at 9 P.M.

I also request all our postgraduate students to become members of ASI and attend the Regional Refresher Course, 2020 which will be held online from 10th to 15th of August, 2020

Please go through the ASI social security scheme and the ASI professional indemnity scheme on the website www.asiindia.org and take benefit of the schemes.

Lastly, on behalf of the Executive Committee of ASA , I seek your co-operation, suggestionsandhelp,sothatwecanruntheassociation to the satisfaction and expectation of all of you.

Long live ASA Long live ASI.

DR. JISHAN AHMED

From the Desk of
Immediate Past Chairperson,
Assam Chapter of ASI

Dear esteemed members of the Assam State Chapter of ASI

For the first time in my life, my pen refuses to flow in its normal smooth fashion, as I address you all. My thoughts are in turmoil, a part of my senses are in a state of numbness trying to cope with the loss of a respected senior teacher a few days ago, a close relative yesterday and a host of people in our medical fraternity, all of whom have lost the fight medical against COVID – 19.

This present newsletter was supposed to be out in the first quarter of this year, but the last six months has turned life topsy-turvy for every human being on the planet. As we slowly come to terms with dealing with a new way of life and find out new ways of doing things the phase “The old order changeth, giving place to the new” acquires greater significance and a newer meaning.

Leading the State Chapter last year was full of challenges, but it was an invigorating experience for me. I tried to give my best efforts in all directions and do hope that I could live up to all your expectations.

The present time is also a challenging one, but I believe we have now comfortably found our way out, adapting to webinars and on-line-versions of almost all issues. I wish the present Chairman Dr. Sarbeswar Borah and his team, all success in carrying out the chapter activities for the rest of their tenure.

I would like to wind up by paying my respectful homage to Prof. G. M. S. Choudhury, whose loss is a great one for our fraternity, and with whom I had always been in close contact as he had been a Professor in my unit for a great part of his service life at Dibrugarh, and whose words and encouragement I am no longer destined to hear. Rest in peace, Sir, in the heavens where only our prayers will reach. My homage also goes out to all members of our fraternity who have fought the virus, so that others could live.

To all my colleagues of the surgical and medical fraternities, my prayers are with you for your safety and the safety of your families. Stay vigilant, Stay safe, Stay positive. Together we will win this battle. Long live Assam Chapter of ASI.

DR. JISHAN AHMED
Immediate Past Chairperson
Assam State Chapter of ASI

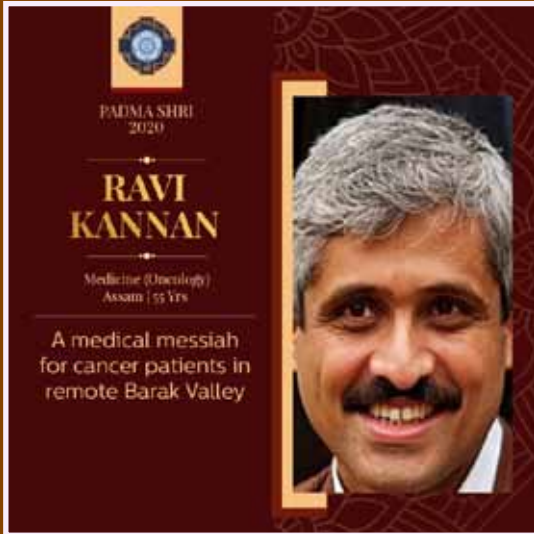

Professor GMS Choudhary – A tribute

Man is mortal, but that dictum hardly consoles a mind when a person like Dr GMS Choudhary departs for his heavenly abode leaving behind a huge void among his family members, friends and admirers. He was born and brought up in Dibrugarh and did his schooling. He did his Pre-University from Cotton College and joined Assam Medical College from where he graduated in 1972. He joined AMC Dibrugarh as Registrar of Surgery in 1975 subsequent to which he obtained his MS degree in general surgery. After then he served at Guwahati Medical College for ten years. He returned to Assam Medical College in 1988 and retired in 2007 as Professor of Surgery. Dr Choudhary was a brilliant surgeon and academician who was awarded FICS in 1985. He was a lifetime member of numerous academic bodies and he delivered lectures in various national and state level conferences. He was one of the pioneer of laparoscopic surgery in the North-Eastern India. Apart from academics, he was very well known in literary circles and was associated with various literary and social organizations of Dibrugarh. He was also an avid poet writing poems highlighting burning topics of the society. I have lost a good and dear friend, who was batch mate of mine at his sad demise. I found him to be a very honest, pious, benevolent human being who was always concerned with other's difficulties and problems. I miss him very much and pray to God to render his soul eternal peace.

ACHIEVEMENT

Dr. Ravi Kannan, one of the recipients of the Padma Shri Award 2020, who treats cancer patients for free.

Dr. Ravi Kannan runs the Cachar Cancer Hospital and Research Centre in Silchar that caters to people from all socio-economic backgrounds and has been conferred with the Padma Shri award in the category of medicine.

He has treated almost 7000 patients without taking a single penny from them. Besides providing free treatment to cancer patients, the hospital also provides accommodation, food, and employment.

Dr Kannan, originally from Chennai, quit his job there and moved to Assam with his family in 2007 to provide basic healthcare facilities for the people of Barak Valley with his Cachar Cancer Hospital and Research Centre in Silchar. He was praised as “Unsung Hero” by Union Minister Piyush Goyal. He is also known as Silchar’s Saviour.

We congratulates Dr. Ravi Kannan for his achievement.

- Dr. Subhas Khanna, founder editor of Surgery Papyrus, selected for the Editor Board of JMAS.
- Dr. Manoj Choudhury, EC Member (ASI) has presented a paper on “Morgagni Hernia” at Virtual Congress of European Association of Endoscopic Surgery(EAES) in the month of June.

We congratulates both of them.
